

We Praise You, O Lord

(Psalm 104)

1. We— praise you O Lord, For— all you have made Your— wis - dom and
2. All— things look to you, To— give them their food; You— give and they
3. You— look at the earth: It— trem - bles in fear; The— moun - tains e - power, Are rich - ly dis - played In— each liv - ing crea - ture on sea and on take, From all that is good When you hide your face they are fright-ened and rupt, Be - cause you are near. Cre - a - tion re - sponds to its mak - er's great land In— all things which live by the gifts of your hand. The lost When— your breath is gone, they re - turn to the dust. Your power; Your— eye and your hand on its life hour by hour. As o - ceans a - round, So deep and so wide; Be - neath roll - ing seas, Are teem - ing with Spir - it is sent, the breath of our birth; And— dai - ly you bring, New life to the long as I live, I'll sing to the Lord; While I am a - live, I'll sing praise to life. We— move in our ships with the winds and the tides Le - vi - a - than earth. Your— glo - ry lives on through - out end - less days May— you Lord re - God. If— my words can please you - then I will re - joice, To— sing Al - le - plays in the waves by our side. joice in— all you have made!

lu - ia, with heart and with voice!