

For the Glory of Your Name

1. In the high - est of heavens, far a - bove all the earth, is a God not— made by
2. But the gods of the earth are cre - at - ed from earth, and are made by— hu - man hands. No— sil - ver or gold could— add to his worth, and no mor - tal— gives him com - hands. Their— sil - ver and gold are— all that they're worth; they'll be melt - ed and made, once a - mands. Give us eyes to see your— splen - dor, Lord. Give us mouths to sing your—gain. Their— mouths don't speak, and their eyes don't see. They have ears but don't hear—praise. Give us ears to hear your e - ter - nal Word. Give us feet to walk in your prayers. Their— hands can't feel, and their throats won't speak, and their feet lead to de - ways. For the glo - ry of your name, O Lord; not to us, but to your name. For the spair.

glo - ry of your name, O Lord; for the glo - ry of your name.
