1. O faith - ful Shep - herd of your peo - ple,
2. O God, why must we feel your an - ger?
3. The pre - cious vine - yard that you plant - ed
4. O faith - ful Shep - herd, send sal - va - tion, take pi - ty now and hear our weep - ing.

How long will our prayers go un - an - swered?
once shad - ed the hills with its branch - es.
the Liv - ing Vine for whom we've wait - ed.

Cre - a - tor of cre - a - tion's light, come show a - gain your sav - ing might.
We've had our fill of bit - ter tears, the scorn of foes weighs down our years.
But now it stands in dis - ar - ray, and greed - y hands strip what re - mains.
Then will our plead - ing turn to praise, from grate - ful hearts a song we'll raise:

Re - store us with your life di - vine; graft us in - to the Liv - ing Vine.
Re - store us, let your glo - ry shine. Graft us in - to the Liv - ing Vine.
When will we taste a - gain your wine? Graft us in - to the Liv - ing Vine.
"Our God is good, his glo - ry shines, grafts us in - to the Liv - ing Vine!"
