

Words by Henry Zylstra, 1953
Psalter Hymnal, 1987

There Where the Judges Gather

Psalm 82

Music by Greg Scheer
STICK IT TO THE MAN
87 87 D

1. There where the jud - es gath - er, — a great - er takes — his
2. "Deal just - ly with — the need - y, — pro - tect the fa - ther -
3. God speaks: "I named — you rul - ers, — to serve the Most — High seat; "How long," he asks — the judg - es, — "will you pro - nounce — de - less, de - liv - er the — af - flict - ed — from those who would — op - God; but you shall die — as mor - tals — and per - ish by — my ceit? How long show spe - cial fa - vor — to those of ill — re - press. But you are whol - ly blind - ed, — you do not un - der - rod." A - rise, O God, — in judg - ment, — your sov - ereign - ty — make pute? — How long ne - glect — the or - phaned, — the poor and des - ti - stand; — there - fore foun - da - tions tot - ter, — in - jus - tice rocks — the known; — for yours are all — the na - tions, — the peo - ples are — your tute? — the poor and des - - ti - tute? —

land. in - jus - tice rocks — the land." —
own. the peo - ples are — your own. —