

Patiently

Psalm 40

$\text{♩} = 76$

Pa - tient - ly; pa - tient - ly, I — wait - ed for the Lord; and He turned to me; and He turned to me; He turned to me and heard _____ my cry.

verses

1. You lift - ed me from the depths of sin, and placed my feet on the
2. Hap - py are those who make God their trust, and turn a - way from the
3. No of - fer - ing and no sac - ri - fice could sat - is - fy you, my
4. I will pro - claim your _____ right - eous - ness; I will not let my _____
5. On - ly your mer - cy up - holds my life; re - store me with your for -
6. O Lord, come quick - ly and keep me safe; I know you are where my
7. May those who seek you re - joice, O Lord; may those who find you be sol - id rock. You filled my mouth with a joy - ous hymn of _____ lies of the proud. So man - y won - ders you've done for us and you ho - ly Lord, ex - cept the bod - y of Je - sus Christ, who has lips be sealed. De - clare the depth of your faith - ful - ness, and your giv - ing hand. Trou - bles sur - round me and sin has blind - ed, but help is found. May those who taunt me be put to shame when they glad and say, "The Lord's ex - alt - ed; God's help is sure!" I will praise and trust to the Lord, my _____ God.

plan more than we could ev - er _____ count.

filled our hearts with the liv - ing _____ Word.
love and truth I will not con - ceal.

you will strength - en my heart a - gain.
see your sav - ing _____ hand reach _____ down.
wait on you, Lord, do not de - lay.