1. Demo Reel
A three-minute overview of music I've written, arranged or recorded for a variety of projects.
2. Three Rivers Overture
Commissioned by the University of Pittsburgh Orchestra, the composition continues to be performed each year at Pitt's graduation ceremony.
3. Bring It On
This jingle won the TopGolf theme song contest, and is now starting a new life as a general sports-themed tune.
4. O Holy Night
50s star Lou Christie sings the solo on this Christmas recording. I arranged and directed the University of Pittsburgh Men's Glee Club, who sang background vocals on this 3WS radio compilation.
5. Rocky and Sandy
A rambunctious, cartoon-style theme song written for a Vacation Bible School.
6. Robot Dance Music
FramesDirect.com held a contest for the best robot dance music. I won.
7. Hymnary Chant
Part of my work with the Calvin Institute of Christian Worship is developing Hymnary.org, a database of hymns and hymnals. To promote the website I composed a brisk and whimsical romp through hymnological history, starting with Gregorian chant (included here) and ending at praise & worship.
8. Mind the Gap Theme Song
My wife's friend runs a theatre company in New York City. This theme song was in response to her request for a "sexy cool jingle/ tagline" for their podcast.
9. Until Then
I arranged, contracted, and directed strings on three songs for songwriter Leslie Bowe's CD.
10. 6, for string quartet
This African rhythm inspired composition was commissioned by the Chagall String Quartet, performed in concert a number of times, and aired by QED public radio in Pittsburgh.
11. If I Only Had Wings
My collaboration with British lyricist Colin Gordon-Farleigh has produced over 40 songs that have been included in projects in England, Russia, Australia and the US. This one is sung by up and coming singer Jenny Douglas.
12. A City on a Hill
Hundreds of my praise songs, hymns, and church choral anthems are available on my website. This one comes from my 1999 CD The Greg Scheer Song Book. It is recorded using only my voice.
13. Holy Gift of Love
I translated and arranged this Mongolian song, and recorded it with the Choral Scholars for the 2010 CD Global Songs for Worship. The vocal octet and piano tracks were recorded by Carl Hordyk; all other instruments were tracked and mixed by me.
14. Chalk Music
When my wife worked for Calvin College's Inner Compass talk show, she directed an episode on Rob Bliss. I created and recorded the music for the opening "Chalk Flood" montage.
